Souderton Strikers FHC's U16, Jordan Michalak is the Philafieldhockey Defender of the Week.

Michalak, a member of the Strikers' Red team, played an outstanding four games in this week's December 2nd tournament at Spooky Nook Sports, propelling the team to win their pool with a record of 3-0-1.

Strikers' U16 Red coach Taylor Yoder noted: "Jordan is very composed, strong, focused, works hard, and is very coachable." Her cool-headed approach to her position paid off big time in the tournament, particularly against Majestyx

White where Michalak recorded several key saves to secure the pool victory.

Strikers Manager Michelle Waldspurger added that "Jordan is very talented, she is athletic, works hard, and moves well in the cage; she makes adjustments to make the saves especially under pressure. Jordan has worked hard to evaluate her game and it shows in her performance."

Michalak also mans the net with her lacrosse team and play soccer. She is an active member of Calvary Church and is involved in two organizations that help children with special needs enjoy sports and recreation.
