

Philly Hockey Club's Kiki Egberts is the Philafieldhockey Attacker of the Week.

Egberts has been a force on both attack and in the midfield this season and had another breakout tournament this past weekend and the Training Center.

"Kiki has steadily improved indoor this year," said Philly Hockey Club Director, Rennie Milne. "She scored key field and corner goals at the team tournament on Sunday, assisting the team to 3rd place finish."

In her first year with the club, Egberts plays on both the U14 1 and U16 1 teams. She participated with Philly at the USA Field Hockey Festival this past November. Egberts is also a member of Welsh Valley Middle School's field hockey team.
