

United Sports' Bulldogs is the Philafieldhockey Team of the Week.

The Bulldogs wrapped up their undefeated season (7-0-1) this past weekend at the United Sports Training Center (USTC). The team, comprised of 3rd and 4th graders, were part of USTC's Winter League, dedicated to improving field hockey fundamentals and providing game opportunities to emerging competitive players.

"The Bulldogs played very aggressive and showed a lot of speed," said Coach Taylor Orsi, who will be playing for the University of Louisville this fall. "They are very passionate about hockey and it showed on the court."

"We played Avon Grove our second game in the tournament series and tied them 2-2. When we saw we had to play them again in the championship game, we knew we had to step up because they are a strong team. We were a bit nervous at first but then found our groove," continued Orsi. "The girls grew so much as players through the tournament series and the score showed that. I am really proud of them and it was a pure joy and honor to coach them."

The USTC Bulldogs roster includes: Addison Blower, Emily Churchill, Madeline Heurich, Madeleine Lathrop, Paige Mackiewicz, Vivienne Quinn, Gizelle Starling, Anna Sullivan, Regan Welsh, Julie Zajac They aren't linked with a club. They signed up for the United sports winter league and formed a team through that.

#brightfuture #LUVyouthfh

Think your team should be featured as the PhilaFH Team of the Week? Click here to submit information.

 PhilaFieldhockey Team of the Week is sponsored by YOLO Sportsweare. Click here for the YOLO website.